SARAWAK MAP

Sarawak is divided into divisions, 12 in all, each headed by an appointed resident. A division is divided into districts, each headed by a district officer, which are in turn divided into sub-districts, each headed by a Sarawak Administrative Officer (SAO).

There is also one development officer for each division and district to implement development projects. The state government appoints a headman (known as ketua kampung or penghulu) for each village.

There are a total of 26 sub-districts in Sarawak all under the jurisdiction of the Sarawak Ministry of Local Government and Community Development.

LIMBANG DIVISION

Limbang Division is one of the twelve administrative divisions of Sarawak, Malaysia. It has a total area of 7,788.50 square kilometres, and is the fourth largest division after Kapit Division, Miri Division and Bintulu Division.

Limbang Division consists of two districts which are Limbang and Lawas, together with a single sub-district under Limbang (Ng. Medamit) and two sub-districts under Lawas (Sundar and Trusan). Long Semadoh and Ba'kelalan are rural settlements in the southern part of Lawas District.

Two major towns in Limbang are Limbang and Lawas. There are also few smaller towns such as Sundar, Trusan, Merapok and Tedungan.

Notes:

The area code for all telephone numbers in Limbang and Lawas, unless otherwise stated is, 085 from outside the area and +6085 from overseas. For mobile phones, add +6 for international dialling followed by the number.

People

Limbang Division is a melting pot of many cultures, including Malay, Kedayan, Chinese, Iban and various Orang Ulu ethnic groups such as Lun Bawang, Bisaya, Murut, Kelabit and Penan.

Connectivity

Limbang is connected by flights from Kota Kinabalu, Kuching and Kuala Lumpur via Miri (RM130 per person) and Labuan (RM100 per person). Lawas is connected by flights from Miri (RM130 per person) and Kota Kinabalu (RM200 per person).

Visitors can also use licensed vans from Miri to Limbang (RM50 per person) or bus transport (RM45 per person). An express boat service is available from Labuan to Limbang (RM16 per person) and Labuan to Lawas (RM17 per person).
